

Letter #2

June 14, 1911 Father and Mother Kinneys'
(2:45 A.M.) - (I got 10 minutes head start)

My side won so now, I have to write something, Anna Palas said the Ginger Ale made me drunk - but I swear I'm not - my chirography (not chiropody) being proof. Any how, as Mrs Morris says, I am d-a-m glad to be here & only hope I may be privileged likewise when the "Roll is called up yonder." 5 yrs hence at Kinney's - be that as it may, here's hoping that those of us who may be absent may be informed of all the nefarious proceedings of the occasion. And may there be a fulfillment of Father Kinney's prediction of 50 grandchildren. As next year is Leap Year maybe I can qualify to help Dad out. It might interest you all to know that the clock having just struck 3 was summarily demolished. It's a party and here's happiness to each and every one and may each of us merit the 46 friendships by being true ones ourselves- with hearty Godspeed to Father & Mother Kinney - family(? believe me to be- Ever yours in the Bands of '07. Back reads: "Lynn Hall - list of those present - L. T. Hall"
